HMRI Through the Lens 2010

Photography Competition for HMRI Affiliated Researchers.

After a successful inaugural competition in 2008,
HMRI Through the Lens is back in 2010.

HMRI is looking for 10 outstanding photographs for the next TTL exhibition at Wallsend District Library and the Royal Newcastle Centre in 2010. HMRI will also nominate the winner for the 2010 Olympus International Bioscapes Competition.

So grab your camera,
DNA sequencer, computer,
microscope and enter a photo!

Visit hmri.net.au for entry forms and prize details, or contact HMRI on 4921 4030.
